Visiting Angels
LIVING ASSISTANCE SERVICES

The holiday season is a very special time of year to get together with loved ones and friends. Making memories that can last a lifetime.

Visiting Angels understands the extra work that may be involved when one of your loved ones needs special attention. We can take some of that stress out of your life and assist your family in making this holiday season easier on everyone so all of you can enjoy the true spirit of the holiday season.

Keeping a regular schedule and continuity of care over the holiday season is important. We encourage you to plan ahead and schedule your caregiver throughout the holiday season.

Take this time as a family member or friend to enjoy some quality time with your loved over the holiday season.
